CCA is a great place to take lessons for the first time rider or the AA show student. Our new-to-riding students learn basic horse care in addition to their riding lessons.

They will learn how to properly lead, groom, tack and un-tack their horses. Our instructor, Alicia Wilkinson, is known for her patience and kindness when working with the new, younger riders and first time adults. She believes that safety and quality instruction come first. Alicia is certified in CPR and First Aid from the American Red Cross.

For the more experienced riders, Alicia is very qualified. Alicia grew up around horses and showed successfully on the A circuit doing hunters and equitation from age ten.

Alicia Wilkinson has a BA in Equine Studies and Business Management from Virginia Intermont College. She has been teaching in the Charlotte area for 10 years.

David Couick, owner and farrier, is a native Charlottean. He has had horses from the time he could walk. David has been shoeing horses for 16 years and his experience brings an invaluable element to maintaining sound horses. Our commitment is to keep our horses and riders happy and safe.

Owners and workers live on the premises.

We specialize in hunt seat and jumping.

½ hour private and semi private lessons and 1 hour group lessons are available.
